U. S. Branch Mint

Dec 8th 1866

Sir

Herewith you will please find my report of the operations of this Branch Mint for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1866. The ^{limited} amount of work done in this institution will probably prove as unsatisfactory to the Department and to the Mint as it has to the gold producers of this locality and to ourselves. In anticipation of the early inauguration of the Coin Draft System to carry out Section 6 of the Act establishing this Branch Mint approved April 21st 1862, depositors seem to have almost totally withdrawn their deposits from us with a view probably of awaiting the time when they can derive some benefit from the operations of this institution, which seems to be of little or no benefit to them as at present constituted for the reasons fully set forth in my first report made for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1864, and in my several subsequent letters to the Department & the Mint urging an early adoption of the Coin Draft System. In view of the necessity of the said I must most respectfully request that you give the movement now on foot to inaugurate this system, your encouragement and attention and bring it as speedily as possible to an early and successful completion.

To Hon

James Callahan

Director U. S. Mint

I am very Respectfully

Superintendent

W. S. March Mine

Received August 15th 1868

Sir

The amount required for the support of this March Mine for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1868, it is estimated, will be, as follows, To Wit:

For Salary of Superintendent	$2,000.00
" Salaries " 3 clerks	5,600.00
" Salary of Miner, Acting as weigher	1,800.00
" Wages of 2 Watchmen	3,285.00
" " " 1 ^{Supervisor} Laborer	2,504.00
" " " 1 Laborer	1,252.00
" Fuel, Lights, Postage, Stationery
Shovel Repairs &c	3,000.00

" Salary of Assayer as per his estimate	1,800.00
" Wages " Assistant Laborer "	9,000.00
" Charcoal, acid, Lead, Pine and,
Glass Ware, Stationery, Repairs &c	2,000.00

" Salary of Miller & Required as per his estimate	1,800.00
" Wages of 3 Assistant, at $5 ⁰⁰ per diem and one Assistant at $5 ⁰⁰ per diem	6,729.50
" Crucibles, Fluxes, Freight, Charcoal
Repairs & other necessary articles	10,500.00
	$51,270.50

Total, Fifty one thousand two hundred and Seventy seventy dollars

Abstract of Estimates
 For Salaries of Officers & Clerks $13,000.00
 " Wages of Assistants, Watchmen, Messengers & Laborers 22,770.50
 " Incidental Necessary Expenses 15,500.00 $ 51,270.00

Being an increase over our estimates for the preceding fiscal year of Three thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty nine dollars $3,769⁰⁰ resulting from an anticipated increase of business under the system of issuing Com. drafts to departments, now about being inaugurated,

The same causes
 exist for the increase of the pay of Officers of this Branch which as set forth in my estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1866. Should Congress at its next Session do us the justice of granting the increase then asked for there will be required in addition to the amount above estimated for Salaries of Officers & Clerks the sum of Three thousand one hundred dollars $3100.
 Hoping that you will do us the favor to renew your recommendation for such increase

I am very Respectfully

To Hon
 James Pollock
 Director
 Phila.

Yours &c. Sir
 Geo. H. Lane
 Superintendent

U. S. Branch Mint
Dover Sept. 14 1867

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith ~~my~~ report of the operations of this Branch Mint for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1867.

The amount of gold bullion deposits received during the year it will be observed is too small to be satisfactory and as a means of increasing the business and usefulness of this institution I would again urge upon you the necessity of adopting the system of issuing Coin drafts at this Branch payable in Philadelphia or New York to depositors acting to receive payment for their deposits in that form as contemplated by the Act establishing this Branch Mint.

In view of the small amount of business done the past year I have sought to curtail the expenses of the Government as much as possible and it will be observed that $11,897 of the appropriation made by Congress for the year was not expended.

Contemplating a still further reduction in our expenses my estimate for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1867 in addition to unexpended balances of appropriations for the past fiscal year amounts to only $38,807 ⁵³ against $51,270 ⁵³ which was the amount estimated as required for the support of this institution for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1865.

For the months of June, July & August past we have had a gratifying increase in the amount of gold deposited being about double the amount received for the same period of last year. and if the business continues to increase in the same ratio for the balance of the year we may approximate towards almost without doubt will be greatly enhanced.

I have the honor to be,

To You

Very Respectfully yours

H. B. Linderman

U.S. Branch Mint, Denver, Colorado,
January 18th, 1868.

To Hon. J. A. Jenckes

For Sub-Committee on the Civil Service.

Sir,

Your circular of 28th ult, with accompanying questions, is received. Herewith I respectfully submit the answer to each interrogatory, in their order.

Wm. H. Lane, Superintendent

1st I am in the civil service of the U. S. in the capacity of Superintendent and Treasurer of the U. S. Branch Mint, Denver, Colorado, and Assistant Treasurer, U. S.

2^d I was appointed Novth 22, and arrived in this city in May 1868.

3^d I was elected County Auditor of Dearborn County Indiana in 1841, held the same four years. I was twice elected to the State Legislature of Indiana, from the County of Dearborn. The first time in 1847. — the second time in 1856.

4th I was engaged for over twenty years in merchandising — Then dealing in real estate, and for a few years before entering the service of the U. S. was engaged in farming in Dearborn Co. Ind.

5th I have not had the advantage of a collegiate education. — I attended the best schools of Laurensburgh. Ind. and Cincinnati Ohio.

6th I was not examined by any one with regard to my qualifications for the office I hold. — after I was appointed and before I came west to enter upon the duties of my office. I spent some time at the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia.

7th I know of ^{no} evidences of my qualifications being submitted to the appointing power, other than the general recommendations.

8th I was appointed by President Lincoln, and recommended by Gov. Jos. C. Wright of Ind. Jas. H. Lane, Senator from Kansas. — H. P. Bennett Delegate in Congress from Colorado, and others. But my appointment and confirmation was more particularly at the request of Gov. Wright.

9th My annual salary as Superintendent is — $2,600.⁰⁰ and as Asst. Treasurer of the U. S. is $500.⁰⁰, making $3,100.⁰⁰ per annum. This larger than my net income previous to my appointment.

10th I pursued no course of study with a view to fitting myself for the duties of this office (except as referred to in 6th answer), and never held any other under the government of the U.S.

11th My duties as Assistant Treasurer of the U.S. are set forth in the laws of Congress. My duties as Superintendent are also prescribed by law, but more in detail by instructions from the Director of the U.S. Mint, approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

12th As Superintendent I report annually to the Director of the U.S. Mint. As Treasurer of the Branch Mint, I report monthly and quarterly to the Treasury Department. As Assistant Treasurer of the U.S. I report weekly and quarterly to the Treasurer of the U.S.

13th The office hours at this Br. Mint are from 9 o'clock A.M. to 3 o'clock P.M. and I give to the necessary correspondence and general direction all my time.

14th There are under my official control ^{seventeen} persons. — They are divided into six classes as follows.

- 1st The Assayer and assistants. Three (3) including the Assayer, who is appointed by the President.
- 2^d The Melter & Refiner and assistants. Four (4), including the Melter & Refiner, who is

It is the duty of the Laborer to keep in order the Mint building. he is employed ten hours per day.

It is the duty of the Watchmen to guard the Mint building one during the day and one at night. They are each employed twelve hours per day.

16th Thirty three applications have been received Twenty eight have been successful and five rejected.

17th No test examinations were made previous to appointment.

18th All have been appointed without any test examinations except that at the commencement of this institution the Melters & Refiners Dept. was furnished with Three (3) assistants from the U. S. Mint. Since which time appointments have been made to the lowest positions in that Dept. whereby the appointees have been enabled to learn by actual experience their duties.

The assay Dept. has been furnished with assistants that were appointed direct from the U. S. Mint or recommended by the Director of that institution.

My Chief Clerk was appointed from the Post — Master General's Dept, at Washington, and was recommended to me by high officials who knew him as a man of ability and strict integrity.

An intimate connection for five years has — sustained this recommendation.

My Pay Clerk and Bookkeeper was appointed upon the recommendation of the Bankers and leading business men of the City, as a superior bookkeeper and worthy citizen, and time has proved that they were correct.

My Calculation Clerk was appointed upon my own knowledge of his ability to discharge the duties of that position.

My Clerk in the U.S. Assistant Treasurer's Office was appointed upon my own knowledge of his ability and qualifications.

The two watchmen were appointed because of their known constancy and strict integrity. One of them, the night watchman has been in the Mint from its commencement and promoted to his present position for his close attention to the duties of the positions he has held.

One of the Messengers was appointed on account of the sacrifice he had made for his Country.

The other has been in the Mint from its commencement, and also acts as laborer in the Assay Dept.

The Laborer is a colored man and is active and industrious.

19th The labourers, messengers and watchmen, were taken indiscriminately from the various employments of civil life. - My Clerk and bookkeeper had pursued a course of study with a special view of qualifying themselves for such duties, and had been clerks for merchants, Banks, and the Dept. at Washington. Those in the Assay and Minter & Refiners depts. I have already referred to.

20th All have been appointed for merit and qualification alone and without regard to political or personal considerations, except that strict inquiry was made as to the character of the appointee for loyalty to his country.

21st They are made in writing, supported and urged by those acquainted with the qualifications of the applicant.

22^d All recommendations are on file and referred to in my letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, when the name is submitted for approval.

23rd Eight have served in the Union armies. - One has been connected with the press. There may be grades of efficiency but these are noticed and on the first opportunity encouraged by promotion.

24th Six have been appointed more than two years and under four years.
Eleven have been appointed more than four years and under six years.

25th Eight are over twenty five years of age, and under thirty. Five are over thirty and under forty. Two are over forty and under fifty. Two are over fifty and under sixty.

26th One has been removed for improper conduct but none for political considerations.

27th No system of promotion has been adopted further than my own observation of the efficiency and worth of every employe, and advancing the worthy when vacancies take place.

28th The practice of promoting the efficient and worthy has been so long adopted, that it is regarded as a rule.

29th Nothing of the kind has occurred in this institution.

30th I have not.

31st At a loss to answer.

32^d Am not prepared to answer.

33rd In an institution of this kind where each department is so distinct, no arbitrary rule of promotion can be established. Each appointment must be acted upon in view of the peculiar qualifications for the place. You might promote a Laborer to Messenger then to watchman, as has been done, or a 3rd Asst. Master Refiner to 2^d Asst. then to 1st in that department. So in the Assay Dept. and this has been the practice, and doubtless has increased the efficiency of the public service.

34th That doubtless would be the result.

35th Think there could.

36th There are no females employed in this institution.

37th This institution may be made more efficient and useful by adopting the plan of issuing coin drafts to depositors as contemplated by the act of Congress establishing this Branch Mint. I have been in correspondence with the Secretary of the Treasury on the subject for some time and hope for a favorable result. In which event the force employed in this institution is not greater than will be required to perform the business, but if unfavorable, the force can be reduced, and shall promptly be done, consistent with strict economy.

U. S. Branch Office
Quincy July 5th 1868

How W. S. Holman

Dear Sir,

You refer to certain points under consideration before the committee on claims I answer, That James M. Clarke was in his twenty second year - but I had supposed him older, until he called my attention to the report of his guardians in Pennsylvania, which referred to the fact of his being twenty one, at a date then mentioned.

Permit me to call your attention to the law establishing the Dr. Office. It provides for the appointment of Superintendent who acts as Treasurer of the Office and Assistant Treasurer of the U.S. Three separate and distinct offices, and at the Office in Philadelphia, and the Branch Office at San Francisco, are filled by three persons.

The Superintendent appointed a Pay Clerk, who keeps the books and accounts of the Mint, pays out the gold bars to depositors. His charge of the bullion fund re. No provision had been made by Congress to pay for a Clerk to the Assistant Treasurer's department, and I had none where this money was deposited. I placed it when the Mint funds were kept. Not especially in charge of the Pay Clerk, and it was not legally in his custody. And as an officer of the Mint proper he had nothing to do with that fund. And a bond as Pay Clerk would not have covered this fund which was then under my own control and legal jurisdiction. Afterwards Congress made an appropriation for a clerk to the Mint, and it is under satisfactory bonds.

Also Congress made appropriation for a vault for the Assistant Treasurer, since which the funds of that department have been kept separate and in charge of its proper clerk. Until this was done, how could I keep the funds of the Assistant Treasurer separate from that of the Mint and when the officers of the Mint in the necessary discharge of their duties during business hours, could have access to, though not under their legal control,

The Gold Box, to which you refer, belonged to the "Bullion fund" of the Treasurer of the Mint, and was properly in the custody of the Pay Clerk, but this was recovered as was all the Mint funds, leaving this balance of $4,419.00 of the funds of the Assistant Treasurer missing.

I have served as Asst Treas of the U.S. at this place for five years at a salary of five hundred dollars per year making $2,500.00. I have received for the same - during that period I have received and disbursed over Three Millions of Dollars - having on hand at one time some $750,000.00 which if you will call on Genl. Spieker. you will find by my weekly report of January 20th 1868 was reduced to $5.00 - and to the credit of all disbursing officers to $3.00.

When I learned of the robbery of so large an amount of public funds - near forty thousand dollars - I would have been authorized as an officer of the government to have offered a reward of $5,000.00 for the arrest of the criminal and recovery of the money, and it would not have been considered an unreasonable reward. But for reasons, which I will not take the time to explain, I offered a reward of One thousand dollars - and one third of that was not claimed. The portion coming to Mrs. Gave, he declined to receive - that he had pursued Clarke during a terrible storm at the peril of his life and guarded him on his return to Denver day and night and on one occasion drew his revolver on a man for attempting to take charge of the saddle bags in which the money was, and could I convey to your committee an idea of the country he had to travel over at that season of the year with so large an amount of money they would appreciate the service he had rendered.

When Clarke was returned to the Court I was absent, having that day gone up the road with the hope of hearing some tidings - feeling as I did anxious for the fate of my son - knowing the stormy and character of the country he had to pass through - and did not return until after Clarke was taken to jail. - I then learned that Clarke had been taken from the Court before he had changed his clothes or his person had been thoroughly searched, that after he was taken to his cell he was searched by an irresponsible jailer who reported that he had found a certain sum and which he delivered to my Chief Clerk. I consider that I have a right to complain at Clarke's removal from the Court where he was being searched before some eight or ten witnesses, to a cell to be searched by one man without any witnesses. - and unless rumor and circumstances which have come to light since, are greatly at fault, had the search been continued at the Court the deficit would have been greatly reduced.

Again, it was reported that Clarke had left some money with his saddles which he had hid after loosing his horses. I immediately sent Mr. Eckfeldt, with Clarke's guide, to find them and bring them back. - But some one had been there before him. - I refer you to Mr. Eckfeldt's.

Again - after Clarke's return it was known who had entered him to the gambling club-rooms and who had won the money.

and the respectability, and I might add, the official position of some of those engaged in seducing a novice - for he was a novice, in such forgeries - Having been well raised - a member of a church, an acceptable visitor in the most respectable families - indeed I might say a favorite in the best society,

This fact being known, came to the exact amount each had robbed him of. I urged the Attorney General to commence suit against them for the recovery of the money - Had this been done the deficit could have been reduced - But it was not done,

Again - Clarke paid the man from whom he got a horse $200. I required the Attorney Genl to sue for that money - He did so and obtained a judgement - afterwards a new trial was granted - and before the next term of the court the suit was dismissed without consulting me,

Had the officers of the Mint been permitted to complete the search of Clarke before he was taken to jail, and if I'd had the aid and assistance of the judicial officers of the government, which I had a right to expect, the deficit would have been so small that it would not have attracted the attention of Congress,

I may have been wrong in placing confidence in James or Clarke. but I did no more than any business man or banker in Denver, would have done. but when you consider that I was just entering upon the discharge of a new office. the duties of which required the assistance of some fifteen or twenty clerks and employes, most of whom were entire strangers - The government had not furnished me with the means to build a vault for the exclusive use of the sub-treasury, and had made no adequate provision for a clerk to that department what could I do but place the funds when I had unlimited confidence and when I saw it often. It is true that confidence was betrayed, and who that will read the report of the facts, and the statement of worthy and disinterested men, on file, but will say that I acted with promptness and success in retaking the betrayer and recovering the money under circumstances that entitle me to some commendation, and when you consider the large amount of business I have done for the Government, as Assistant Treasurer of the U.S. for the small pittance of five hundred dollars per year, that the criminal was taken and some $24,000 recovered, and a reward of only $666⁰⁰ paid, - that the prisoner was not searched before witnesses, - and that I did not have the aid of the Government officers to recover the money stolen from Clarke by the gamblers. Are facts worthy of consideration,

I be excused for calling your attention to another fact,
Some two years since the Secretary of the Treasury, appointed Mr.
Ringwalt, Commissioner, to visit this Branch Office, and under instructions of the Director of the Office at Philadelphia, to examine and enquire into its management and report to the Department. That was done, and I understand that report was favorable to me as an officer, and commended me for the strict economy I had shown in the erection of the public buildings, and management of the institution. I refer to it that if you wish further information in regard to my official career you may know where to obtain it,

Your attention is directed to the accompanying letter of Amos Stark Esq,

Yours with great respect
Geo W Lane Sup

Gen Geo. W. Lane.

Dr Sir.

Some question having been made as to the age of Mr James D. Clarke who was in employe in the Quora Branch Mint there and was under the superintendency of yourself, I have to say that I have known the family of Mr James D. Clarke for many years in the county of Allegheny Pennsylvania, and I know that the said Clarke at the time of his appointment as an employe of the said Mint was over twenty one years of age and indeed he looked as if he might be twenty five years of age.
He was an excellent book-keeper, and I thought him before his criminal behaviour a most exemplary young man & recommended him to you as a most worthy young man for the position to which you appointed him. I very much regreted to be compelled to change my opinion respecting him,

Very truly Yours &c

(Signed)

Amos Stebbins

W. R. Hindermann

Director U. S. Mint

Philad.

John C. C. L. S. S.

W. H. Lane

Superintendent

August 26th 8.

Sir

I have the honor to enclose herewith my report of the operations of this Branch Mint for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1868. By it you will observe that the total value of deposits received has been nearly three times greater than for the fiscal year previous. This gratifying increase is due in part to the reduction of the charges made for melting assaying and stamping from one half to one quarter per cent in conformity with your order of April 13th approved by the Hon Secretary of the Treasury, and in part, to the continued increase of the gold and silver products of Colorado. In view of present and continued rapid development of the great mineral resources of this region I would most respectfully again urge upon you the propriety and necessity of the adoption of the Coin draft system as contemplated by the Act establishing this Branch Mint, believing that it would encourage and stimulate the producers of gold by rendering them independent of speculators, and that it would also soon make this institution self sustaining. Very Respy Servts

W. R. Hindermann, Director.

W. H. Lane, Superintendent.

DENVER, June 30, 1869. }

SIR:—I have the honor to submit the following report of the operations of the U. S. Branch Mint at Denver, Colorado, for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1869, as follows:

Number of gold and silver bullion deposits received.....1259
Number of unparted bars turned out.....1406

	DOLLS. CTS.
Gross value of gold received.....	795,566 38
Gross value of silver received.....	54,828 63
Total value of deposits.....	850,395 01
Deductions, one quarter of one per cent., being charges for melting, assaying and stamping...	2,125 98
Value of unparted bars returned to depositors...	847,272 32
Amount of change paid depositors from U. S. bullion fund.....	996 71
Total amount paid depositors.....	848,269 03
To which add charges paid by depositors, as above stated.....	2,125 98
Total.....	850,395 01
* Amount of gold and silver accredited to the Territory of Colorado.....	850,395 01

By the foregoing statement, you will observe that the total value of deposits received has been more than double the total value of deposits received during the preceding fiscal year, which was $368,017.78, showing an increase of over one hundred and thirty-four per cent. This gratifying result is due, in part, to the continued increase of the gold and silver products of Colorado, in part to the prompt manner in which deposits have been disposed of after being received, in most cases being returned to depositors on the succeeding day, and the reduction of charges.

In view of the fact that charges of extravagance have been made against me in conducting the business of this institution, I trust it will not be out of place for me to state in this connection, that the amount of appropriations made by Congress, for the INCIDENTAL AND CONTINGENT expenses of this Branch Mint, from June thirtieth, 1864, to June thirtieth, 1869, embracing a period of five years since the business of the same has been in successful operation, and not including the original outlay for the construction and alteration of Mint Buildings and first purchases of material, machinery etc., has been $50,618.16, or an average of $10,123.63 per annum. The amount expended by me for incidental and contingent expenses for the aforesaid period of five years, which includes the entire expenses of the Branch Mint, embracing those of the Assay and Melting Departments, then in charge of Dr. O. D. Munson, Assayer, and Frederick Eckfeldt, Esq., first, and subsequently, Chambers C. Davis, Esq., Melters, has been $31,883, or an average of $6,376.60 per annum, showing the amount unexpended of appropriations under this head, and which were directly under my control, to be $18,735.16.

I submit that this does not show that I was disposed to be wasteful or extravagant of the public funds.

In further evidence of my desire to conserve the public interest and to enhance the usefulness of the institution, I would most respectfully call your attention to the subjoined copy of one of my numerous letters to the Hon. Secretaries of the Treasury, bearing upon this subject as follows:

(COPY.)

U. S. BRANCH MINT, }
DENVER, January 9, 1868. }

To HON. HUGH McCULLOUGH,

Secretary of the Treasury:

SIR:—Your letter of the twenty-third ult., requesting a complete list of all employes, and compensation of same, is received. Enclosed please find the information called for:

I need not remind you of the fact that all appointments are promptly submitted to your consideration for approval or rejection, and all the employes in the Branch Mint have received that approval.

If the number is greater than the business now being done would seem to justify, you will pardon me for calling your attention to the fact that some time since you issued instructions in accordance with the law establishing this Branch Mint, to authorize the issue of coin drafts to depositors of bullion, leaving one question alone to be settled before fully entering upon the introduction of the system; that of a satisfactory arrangement with the Express Companies. To secure this object, I have made every effort in my power. Proposals have been received at less rates than those prescribed in your instructions. These have been submitted, and your approval urged by all the arguments I was able to present, but to this day, that approval has not been received, and no answer that it has been rejected, or the authority to issue coin drafts rescinded.

I refer to these facts in connection with this report as an explanation for continuing the employment of a greater number (though that number is less than I am authorized to appoint) than the business at present requires. But expecting the full authority to commence the issue of coin drafts, I have continued the experienced and worthy men, knowing that as soon as that system was adopted, we would have all the business that could be performed by the present force. If the Department will inform me that they have decided to rescind the authority given me to issue coin drafts, and that they will approve of such reduction of the force in this Branch Mint as I will recommend, it will soon be reduced to a standard consistent with the duties being performed.

I would respectfully call your attention to another fact, which has had much to do towards retarding the usefulness of the institution, to which I have frequently referred in my correspondence with the Treasury Department and the Director of the U. S. Mint. That is, the amount we are required to charge for assaying bullion, and that the persons paying the same get no credit or allowance for the amount so paid here when their bars are taken to the U. S. Mint. The same charges have to be paid at the U. S. Mint, or U. S. Assay office at New York, on bars from this Branch Mint, as they would and do charge on gold deposited direct from the mines in amalgam or dust, and the amount we are required to charge, one-half per cent., is within a fraction of all the charges at the U. S. Mint for assaying, parting, refining and coinage. This makes it to the interest of those having large amounts of gold, to ship it direct to the U. S. Mint without assay at this Branch.

It is true, you consented to reduce our assay charges one-half, to depositors under the coin draft system, and when that is inaugurated, that objection will be removed, and then the reports from this Branch Mint will reflect the business of the country.

The late discoveries of rich and extensive placer mines north and south of us, will, without doubt, greatly increase the product of gold in this country another year. There has also been found, this last fall, a district of country southwest, on the head-waters of the Arkansas river, where there are numerous lodes of free-gold quartz, or decomposed ore of untold richness, that in another year, will be worked with great profit.

In view of these facts, if it is the wish of the Government to foster, encourage and sustain those who are actually engaged in developing these fountains of national wealth, and place them independent of the speculators, the powers and capacity of this Branch Mint should be increased instead of reduced.

Situated as I am, in the midst of this mining country, with every opportunity for obtaining information on the subject, I have felt it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to communicate such knowledge as I considered of sufficient interest to the Treasury Department, and at times make such suggestions as I considered necessary to enable me to sustain and make useful the institution over which I was placed, and as far as possible, carry out the object and intent of the law establishing this Branch Mint.

If I have failed to secure the confidence of the Department, I must suffer the consequences, and stand aside, and let some one take my place in whom you have that confidence, and whose recommendations will be favorably received and considered.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) GEO. W. LANE,
Superintendent U. S. Branch Mint.

The buildings and public property under my charge, have been kept in good repair, and are in good condition, and worth, so far as the improvements added during my administration are concerned, every dollar they have cost the Government.

In view of the fact that the mineral resources of Colorado are acknowledged by scientific minds to be rich and inexhaustible, it would seem to be the interest of the Government to foster and encourage the development and production of the precious metals here, and I would earnestly recommend that the system of coin drafts contemplated by the bill establishing this Branch Mint for the consummation of which my efforts have been persistent, yet unavailing, be put into effect at the earliest possible period, and thus hasten the day when the producers of gold will become independent of speculators. The fertile valleys along the streams of Colorado, and such of the uplands as are susceptible to irrigation, yield most bountiful harvests to the husbandman; in many instances, full one hundred per cent. more than other portions of our country. The immense plains, clothed in nutritious grasses, afford unparalleled pastoral advantages. Horses, cattle and sheep, live and fatten the whole year, unhoused and unfed, enriching the thousands engaged in the business of stock raising. The immense deposits of coal and iron, add also to the material wealth of the Territory. With these combined advantages, the reciprocity of interest between mining and agricultural pursuits, and the probable introduction of abundant and cheaper labor, by the influx of emigration, Colorado, if protected by the Government from the devastation of the merciless savages that have hung as a millstone about her neck for years, will soon become the brightest and most self-dependent star in the Constellation of States. Cottages and barns will rise, Phoenix-like from the ashes of her desolated homes, and peace and prosperity occupy the places of doubt and insecurity.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,

GEO. W. LANE,

Sup't U. S. Br. Mint, Denver, C. T.

To HON. JAMES POLLOCK,

Director U. S. Mint, Philadelphia.
